

necessitated to delay the renewal of his License, owing to not having at the proper time the means of obtaining them, but under the daily expectation of receiving it continued to sell. He represents himself unable to pay the fine, and as having a family to support, and therefore prays that it may be remitted, and the Court having recommended the remission. The board do hereby remit the said fine.

By the Petition of said Dorsey, Phil Dorsey and Washington Wallace, accompanied by a transcript from the Records of Prince Georges County Court, it appears that they had entered into Recognizance, the said Phil Dorsey in the sum of £50 and the said Phil Dorsey and Washington Wallace in the sum of £25 each for the appearance of the said Phil Dorsey before the said Court at September Term 1822 to answer & also to keep the peace & which said recognizance has been forfeited. The Petitioners state that the said Phil Dorsey did keep the peace according to the tenor of the said recognizance and did make his personal appearance at the aforesaid term but from ignorance of what way further necessary he omitted to answer when called, and to report himself to the Clerk. They therefore pray that the said forfeiture may be remitted. And the Court having recommended the remission. The board do hereby remit the same.

By the Petition of Sally Wallingsford, Joseph Wallingsford and George A. Beale, accompanied by a transcript from the Records of Prince Georges County Court, it appears that they had entered into recognizance, the said Sally Wallingsford in $50, and the said Joseph Wallingsford and George A. Beale in $25 each for the appearance of the said Sally Wallingsford before the said Court at September 1822 to answer & also to keep the peace & which said recognizance has been forfeited. The Petitioners state that the said Sally Wallingsford did keep the peace according to the tenor of said recognizance and that she made her personal appearance at the aforesaid term as by the said recognizance she was bound but being un-acquainted with her further liability, and ignorant of the necessity of reporting herself to the Clerk, which she did not do. They therefore pray that the said forfeiture may be remitted. And the Court having recommended the remission. The board do hereby remit the same.
