By a transcript from the Records of Frederick County Court, it appears that a certain Doctor Jacob Coblenz, was fined by the said Court, at February Term Instant, the sum of five hundred dollars for keeping a Lottery office, and selling Lottery Tickets, without License. Upon the said transcript was entered as follows viz: "In the above case of the State, against Jacob Coblenz for selling Lottery Tickets without a License, we think there are palliating circumstances in his case sufficient to recommend him to the clemency of the Executive of Maryland for a remission of the fine, imposed by the Court agreeably to Law. Jas. Buchanan Attest
 Th. Buchanan"

We do, therefore, hereby remit the said fine.

His Excellency the Governor granted a Pardon Proximo to the Reverend John Valiant, on account of an indictment pending against him in Baltimore City Court charging him with having "found in marriage a certain Mary Amanda Sanford, a female under the age of sixteen years and never before married, with a certain James Bosworth, without the consent of the parents or guardians of the said Mary Amanda Sanford." (See Pardon Record)
