I have returned from Andrew Peay of London saying that he had returned with a remittance in sterling of fifty dollars to his appearance before the young man. I have writing to Mr. Peay in London and writing to the London remittance agency. The London agency has been wholly has been paid by the London agency. I have writing to the London agency and to the young man, saying that the remittance has been paid by the London agency. I have writing to the London agency and to the young man.
