

in the sum of fifty dollars for his own appearance before the said County Court; to testify against the said Court: which said recognizances have both been forfeited.

The Petitioner states, that the said Court (made his escape), that the said James B. Wilson attended the said Court, but was not aware of the necessity of performing the clerk so as to have his recognizance respected, and indeed believed it useless to attend when the party against whom he was to testify had left the State. She further states, that she has been left poor with a helpless family of small children, and that if the amount of the said forfeitures should be collected from her, it would render in the most necessary circumstances. And the Court having recommended a remission of the said forfeitures, we do hereby remit the same.

By a transcript from the Record of Baltimore County Court, it appears, that a certain Samuel Binnix was fined by the said Court, at September Term 1827 the sum of sixteen dollars for selling liquor without License. And the said Court having stated that it has been represented to them that the said Samuel Binnix was for a long time regularly licensed to sell liquor, but that by accident alone the renewal of his License was delayed, and further now that said Binnix has since died and left a helpless family, we therefore respectfully advise a remission of the said fine, we do hereby remit the said fine.

By the Petition of David Kennedy of Baltimore County, accompanied by transcripts from the Record of the County Court of said County, it appears, that he was fined by the said Court, at March Term last, in two several cases, the sum of sixteen dollars in each case for selling liquor without License.

The Petitioner states, that sometime before the last fall Session of Baltimore County Court, he was anxious to obtain a License to retail Spirituous liquors; that he applied to a friend to become his security, and was told that in the case of the Court, he could not get a License, but was induced to believe, that he might sell without, provided he procured one as soon as Court met; that under this impression he did sell liquors without License, until they found
