By transcripts from the Records of Baltimore County Court, it appears that a certain Joshua Lammert, was fined by the said Court, at September Term 1827 the sum of sixteen dollars, for selling liquor without License. James W. Culloch Esquire represents, that the said Lammert had not the benefit of Counsel or Mitigation in his trial, or that, upon the facts, he would have been acquitted. That sickness prevented his attending the trial, and that the amount of the cost, has fallen oppressively on him. And the said Court having recommended a remission of the said fine, we do hereby remit the same.
