

in the Opinion of the Governor and Council, that the Representatives in Congress from this State, should be chosen before the time fixed by Law for such Election, then it shall be the duty of the Governor and Council by Proclamation, published in the Newspapers throughout the State, and otherwise, at least thirty days before the time to be appointed for the Election, by said Proclamation, to appoint a day for the Election as aforesaid, of Representatives in Congress &c. — And Whereas, the President of the United States, has, by Proclamation, called a Special, or extra Session of Congress, to convene on the first Monday of September next, which, in the Opinion of the Governor & Council, makes it necessary that the Representatives in Congress from this State should be chosen before the time fixed by Law for such Election. Now, therefore, I Thomas W. Nease, Governor of the State of Maryland, do, by this my Proclamation appoint the fourth Wednesday of July, next, being the 28th day of that month, as the day for the Election of Representatives from this State to serve in the Congress of the United States.

Great Seal

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Maryland this sixth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty seven, and of the Independence of the United States the sixty first. Thos. W. Nease

By the Governor Thos. Gillett Clerk of the Council.

§3 To be published once a week, until the day of Election in each and all the Newspapers printed in the State. —

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Jeremiah Hughes or order one thousand dollars, on account of printing the Journals of the House of Delegates, to be accounted for. —

Ordered that the Treasurer of the Western Shore pay Lucas & Coover, or their order two thousand dollars for publishing for the use of the State five hundred copies of Boyman's History of Maryland, at $4 per copy as per contract with the Governor & Council, authorized by Resolution passed at December Session 1835 Chap 79. —

By the petition of Samuel White, of Fox and his heirs from the Records of Somerset County Court, it appears that the said Samuel White was fined by the said Court at May Term 1837 in six several cases the sum of few dollars, in each case, for selling Spirituous Liquors without License.

The Petitioner represents, that he never intended to violate the Laws of the Land by selling said liquor; that he is a farmer...
