By the petition of Catherine Yager and a transcript from the Records of Baltimore County Court, it appears that the said Catherine Yager was fined by the said Court at November Term 1837 the sum of ~~one~~ for selling liquor without License.

The petitioner states that by the late frost in Jones Falls she has lost almost all her property, and was by that cause reduced to great distress and is now very poor and utterly unable to pay the fine and costs imposed upon her by the Court, although the lowest fine was imposed upon her with the discretion of the Court would allow. She therefore prays for a remission of the said fine. And the said Court having recommended her to Executive Clemency, we do hereby remit the said fine so far as the same is payable to the estate.
