June 18th

The Governor issued the following Proclamation.
State of Maryland Set.

Whereas it has been represented to me that an atrocious outrage was committed on the 9th of June instant on the person of Martha Stockett of Anne Arundel County by a Negro Slave the property of Rebecca Hurd of said County called George Tyler and that the said Negro has eluded the officers in pursuit of him and is now at large and considering it a case of such a character as to justify and require a reward for his apprehension Now therefore I Augustus W. Bradford Governor of the State of Maryland do by this my proclamation offer a reward of two hundred dollars for the apprehension at any time after the date hereof of the said George Tyler and the delivery of him to the Sheriff of Anne Arundel County. The said Negro according to the description with which I have been furnished is about 33 years of age, of dark copper color five feet six inches high, well proportioned strong and active of quick speech when spoken to and shows his upper teeth considerably, very polite with a pleasant face beard thin and scattering, is left handed has a scar on one of his legs below the knee and another on one of his arms and had on when he left a blue striped Cotton shirt and pantaloons.

Given under my hand this 18th of June 1862.

By the Governor

A. W. Bradford
