

In Council Annapolis 15th Sept. 1700

436. Sir. Yours of the 8th Instant was received this Day. We have given Mr. Richardson an Order on Mr. Tho^s. Johns for all the Money and Tobacco which he has received on Loan, by which Mr. Richardson, by receiving Provision for the amount of your Subscription, settle the Matter with both you and Mr. Johns. We are &c.
William Bailey Jun^r Esq^r

In Council Annapolis 16th Sept. 1700

437. Gent^l. Notwithstanding our Letters of yesterday to you, we have now to desire you will not forward any Provision, until you receive our further Directions. We are &c.
Mess^{rs}. Richardson & Beall.

In Council Annapolis 18th Sept. 1700

438. Sir. Please to send us a Return of what Provision you have forwarded since your last. Whatever you may receive from this Time, must be stored and detained, until you have further Orders from us, excepting what you deliver to Mr. W. Smith, agreeable to our former Instructions. We hope Mr. Salchaun will be able to deliver you some salt meat at least to answer the Purpose you mention. We are &c.
Mr. Tho^s. Donnellan.

In Council Annapolis 18th Sept. 1700

439. Sir. We have just received Letters which make it proper that the Provision you procure should be stored and detained in Baltimore, until our further Order. Mr. Donnellan requests to be furnished with some salt meat, we hope you will be able to supply him. We are &c.
James Salchaun Esq^r

In Council Annapolis 18th Sept. 1700

440. Sir. We received your Letter of the 13th Inst. The Arrival of a Flag of Peace in Baltimore from New Providence, has not been regularly communicated to us, nor have we had any Information of it that could be depended on, but what has been imparted by you. We apprehend the Conduct in taking proper Precautions to prevent the Disturbances that might arise from a free and unrestrained Communication between the Prisoners & their Acquaintances. As Mr. Master has Prisoners who are to be exchanged, we are desirous of being particularly informed how far we obtained Leave to bring them to this State, if it was granted, and of every other Matter that relates to it, and therefore
