Richard J. Bowie Esq
Deputy Attorney General
for Montgomery County.

State Department
Annapolis Nov 2nd 1848.

Edward D. Martin Esq
Clerk of Worcester County Court.

Sir.

The report and recommendation of the Trustees of the Poor of Worcester County, of John P. I. Jones an indigent blind boy of said county, as a proper person under the Act of Assembly of 1837 chapter 179. and its supplements, to be educated at the expense of the State, has been received at this Department.

Herewith is transmitted an order requesting the Principal of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Instructions of the Blind at Philadelphia, to admit Young Jones into the Institution as a pupil of the State of Maryland. This order you will please cause to be delivered to the Friends of Young Jones.

I learn that John Hardy Simmons a deaf mute in whose favor I sent an order on the 4th of May last has not reached the Deaf and Dumb Institution: You will please inform me whether the order in his favor was delivered or has reached his friends.

Your attention will greatly oblige.

Very respectfully,

Your obt. servt

Philip F. Thomas.
