

tion, is now effected, under a power, every doubt, in relation to which, would be removed, if the company were allowed to hold, in each of the four counties, through which the canal may pass, a quantity of land, not exceeding one thousand acres with an authority at any time hereafter, to sell the same.

Respectfully submitted by order of the President and Directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company.

C. F. MERCER,
Pres't Ohio Canal Comp.
