

was in his senses when he made his Will for she would not have done the same for all John Gibbs Estate and that John Sprays answer was what I have done upon which she told him he had sworn John Gibb was in his proper senses thereupon he said he was asked no such question, but only if he was in his senses, and that he was certain he was not in her senses, or his, so must have been in his own whether Foller or Madman, and that he knew People would talk and that they might talk for they had Room for it but we have done it, meaning himself and other Witnesses and that they who were Affronted might take their Recompence ^{her} Mary M Meconahin

The Deposition of John Bain of Cecil County Merchant aged Twenty eight years or thereby who being Sworn & Interrogate upon the af. Interrogatories to the first saith that he hath known the parties Libellant & Respondents for about seven years

Ast to the Second Interrogatory saith he knew the af. John Gibb deceased about six years

Ast to the third Interrogatory he says he knows nothing of it

Ast to the fourth Interrogatory and also the fifth saith that some short time before the death of the af. John Gibb he went to demand Payment of a Debt from him but finding him as he imagined distracted and as bad as any Person in Bedlam could be made no demand of his Money from which and hearing him complain of the Justice of Almighty God he says he concluded,
