An Act prohibiting all compliance with Cap^t William Fleybourne in opposition of his Lord ships right and Dominion over this Province Whereas Cap^t William Fleybourne heretofore of the Isle of Kent within this Province of Maryland and now of the colony of Virginia for his frequent attempts practices and enterprizes in opposition of his Lordships un doubted right and dominion in and over this Province hath heretofore carried himself in a very rebellious manner against his Lordship and the Governm^t Established here under him and still remains exempt from pardon in that respect And whereas also upon a full hearing on both sides by reference from his late Majest before the Lords of the Council in England the fourth of Aprill one thousand Six hundred thirty eight the said Fleybourne pretended claim to the said Isle of Kent and some other part of his Lordships Province and trade with the Indians was rejected and his Lordships un doubted right and title thereunto according to his Patent was confirmed And Whereas like wise by Proclamation made and published in Virginia the fourth of October one thousand Six hundred thirty eight by the authority of the then Governour there with the advice and consent of the Council of State in relation to be in pursuance of the said order of the Lords of the Council All and every the Inhabitants of that colony were expressly prohibited to use or exercise any trade or commerce with any Indians
