

allow them to be used in any way

2) That no account be allowed for such bills against any person administrator or guardian to any orphan against any person or against the final part of any bill committed to any person or any person entrusted by the County Court but the said orphan shall be maintained and educated by the interest of their estate and the increase of their estate so far forth as their said interest and increase will extend but if their estate be so small as that it will not extend to a free education of such orphans then such orphans shall be bound apprentices to some honest craft trade or other profession at the discretion of the County Courts until they arrive to the age of twenty one years except some Justice man or relation or some other charitable person will maintain them for the increase of the small estate they have without any diminution of the principal which shall always be delivered to the orphan at the year thereafter in this act limited and appointed then each Justice man or relation or other charitable person is thereby obliged to perform the same as is by this law before enjoined and to be ascertained by the County Courts

Provided always that no orphan shall be put into the hands of any person of different religion to that of the deceased parent of the said orphan.

3 That all Cattle Horses and Sheep shall be returned in kind by the guardian or other persons entrusted with orphans estate that is to say so many Cattle Horses and Sheep as were delivered to the guardian or trustees of the said orphan

4 That all plate rings and Jewels be preserved and not used by the guardian or trustees and delivered in kind to the orphans when they come to age and that all Household stuff and Lumber be appraised in money and not otherwise and the value thereof paid to the orphans as aforesaid either in money Sterling or in the Appraisment or in Tobacco at the then price current and in case any increase shall arise what shall be the price current at the day of payment in the bond taken, the Justice of the County Court unless otherwise appointed shall then determine what shall be the price current

5 That every male orphan shall be of full age to receive at the age of twenty one years and not before but in case of any disability and Testament do appoint any person to be his executor or administrator within two years of age that person be appointed in writing