

SYSTEM of EDUCATION.

teachers of each of the said grammar schools respectively, by the visitors and directors thereof, except Anne-Arundel and Kent counties, and the treasurers of the eastern and western shores respectively are hereby required to pay the said sum, in manner aforesaid, to the order or orders of the said visitors and directors, or a majority of them; provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to entitle the visitors and directors of any such county school to the sum of money aforesaid, unless there shall be the number of fifteen students of the learned languages, or of the mathematics, in such school; provided nevertheless, that no order or orders for the whole or any part of the above-mentioned sum shall be drawn on the treasurer of the western or eastern shore by the visitors and directors of any county school in virtue of this act, until proper and sufficient schools are provided for the reception of scholars, a teacher or teachers actually engaged.

VI. And be it enacted, That the said visitors and directors shall meet at least twice in each year, in stated semi-annual meetings, to be appointed by their own ordinances, and at such other times as they may direct, in order to examine the progress of the students and scholars in literature, to hear and determine upon all complaints and appeals, and rights and jurisdictions belonging or in anywise incident to the directors and visitors established by this act; and the several sums of money directed by this act to be paid to the visitors and directors of the grammar school, for the use of the said schools, are hereby directed to be paid to the said trustees or visitors, to be by them applied in the same manner, and to the same purposes, as the visitors and directors to be constituted in virtue of this act are required; and in all cases wherein two or more counties may have a joint public school, the visitors or trustees thereof shall be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to receive the several sums of money to which the visitors and directors of such counties are by this act entitled to receive, to be by them applied in the same manner as the visitors and directors are required by this act to apply the same, any thing in this act to the contrary notwithstanding; provided nevertheless, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any county of this state from having a county school, separate from such joint school, if the visitors and directors of such county school, appointed in virtue of this act, shall find it more convenient to erect a school of their own, in which case the said visitors and directors so appointed shall draw the proportion of money allowed by this act to their county, and apply it to said county school.

VII. And be it enacted, That the said visitors and directors of the several counties in this state shall and they are hereby authorised and empowered to draw on the treasurers of their respective shores for the following sums, semi-annually, to wit: Saint-Mary's county, four hundred dollars; Charles, four hundred and eighty dollars; Calvert, two hundred and forty dollars; Prince-George's, five hundred dollars; Montgomery, five hundred and sixty dollars; Washington, seven hundred and eighty dollars; Allegany, two hundred and sixty dollars; Frederick, one thousand four hundred and twenty dollars; Anne-Arundel, five hundred and eighty dollars; Baltimore-town and county, one thousand four hundred and sixty dollars; Harford, five hundred and eighty dollars; Cæcil, four hundred and eighty dollars; Kent, three hundred and twenty dollars; Queen-Anne's, four hundred dollars; Caroline, three hundred and sixty dollars; Talbot, three hundred and sixty dollars; Somerset, four hundred dollars; Dorchester, five hundred dollars; Worcester, four hundred dollars; and the said sums, when by them received, shall be applied, by the consent and with the approbation of a majority of the visitors and directors in each county, in the following manner, for the purpose of promoting useful knowledge and education; that is to say, the said visitors and directors shall pay to able school-masters, of good moral character, in different parts of their respective counties, a sum not under ten nor exceeding fifty dollars each, in any one year; and each school-master, for every ten dollars by him received, shall in each year teach and educate three poor boys, which boys shall be specified and named to him in writing by a majority of the visitors and directors.