An ACT to make valid a Deed from Arthur Woolford to James Laird, of Somerset County.

Passed December 23, 1810.

WHEREAS Arthur Woolford, of Somerset county, did, on the sixth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seven, execute and acknowledge a deed of bargain and sale, for the purpose of conveying to James Laird, of the same county, a part of a tract of land called Woolford, lying and being in the said county, according to certain metes and bounds as expressed in the said deed, which was in due form of law enrolled in the land records of Somerset county: And whereas the said deed was by mistake dated the sixth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seven, and there being doubts as to the validity of the same, therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said deed from Arthur Woolford to James Laird, for part of a tract of land called Woolford, lying and being in Somerset county, and enrolled in the land records of said county, shall be valid, and have as full force and effect, as if the same deed had been dated on the sixth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seven, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

A Further Supplement to an Act, entitled, An Act to confirm and make public a certain Road therein mentioned.

Passed December 23, 1810.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Harford and Baltimore counties, that a law passed at November session, eighteen hundred and eight, confirming that part of the plot and return of the commissioners appointed by an act of the general assembly of Maryland, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and six, from John Wise's, in Harford county, to William Slade's, in Baltimore county; and no provisions being made in the act to which this is a further supplement to allow damages to individuals over whose land the said road does pass, therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Johnson, Joshua Stevenson and William Hutchings, of Baltimore county, and Jesse Jarrett and Andrew Turner, of Harford county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are authorised and requested to view and ascertain what damages are done to individuals over whose lands the said road has been laid, between John Wise's, in Harford county, and William Slade's, in Baltimore county, and make return of such valuation and damages to the levy courts of Baltimore and Harford counties, to be by them levied, at their next meeting that shall happen thereafter, on the assessable property of the respective counties, to be collected and paid, as other county charges are collected and paid, to those entitled to receive, or their order.
