

such enlargements of the said town as may be assented to by the holders of the adjoining lands, which assent shall be in writing, and evidenced by the signature of such owners, to the plot herein required to be made and recorded therewith, and shall lay out, mark and bound, such enlargement, the lots, streets, lanes and alleys thereof, as they may deem necessary. Dec. Ses 1817

5. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of establishing the true original location of the said town, the said commissioners are hereby authorised to issue subpoenas for witnesses, and to compel their attendance and testimony in the same manner as witnesses summoned to give testimony before a justice of the peace, and may allow them the same compensation for their attendance. Original location to be ascertained.

6. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of defraying the expenses to be incurred in the execution of this act, the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall cause to be levied on the real property in said town, such sum of money as shall be sufficient for that purpose, which levy shall be made by reference to the county assessment in said county, and be collected by such person as the said commissioners shall appoint for that purpose; and in case of refusal or neglect to pay the said tax by any person chargeable therewith, it shall be recovered in the name of the said commissioners, in the same manner as the forfeitures herein before mentioned are recoverable. Levy on town

7. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall also levy on the enlargements which they may make to the said town such part of the said expenses as they in their judgment may think just and right, to be collected and recovered as aforesaid. —on enlargement thereof.

8. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall cause to be made out under their hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of a majority of them, a correct plot and certificate of said town, including such enlargement, and shall return the same to the clerk's office of said county there to be recorded, and when recorded shall for ever thereafter be considered as evidence of the location of said town, and the streets, lanes and alleys thereof be considered as public highways. Plot to be returned.

9. And be it enacted, That all fines and forfeitures collected under this act, shall be first applied towards defraying the expenses incurred in the execution thereof, and the surplus, if any, to repairing the streets of said town, under the direction of the said commissioners. Application of fines.

CHAPTER 133.

An additional Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to incorporate a Company to make a Turnpike Road from the City of Baltimore to Havre-de-Grace. Passed Feb 6

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the Baltimore and Havre-de-Grace turnpike company to alter any part of the location of said road, as they in their judgment shall deem necessary, they making, or causing to be made, a survey of such alteration of the location, and causing a plot thereof to be filed in each of the offices of the clerks of Baltimore and Harford counties. Location of road may be altered.