

House an title of Job^o & the Chancellors also was pleased to give the same & the rest of the Gentlemen 200 of Job^o apiece out of their own purses for his pains taken in transcribing the Law

Then came the Lower House & the Laws being read the Lieuten^t Gen^l gave his Consent to them in these words. The Lord Proprietor willeth that those be Laws. after which the Lieut^t Gen^l ordered the reasons drawn up by this house be delivered to the Speaker to be considered on After which the Speaker returned into the Upper House & desired their Reasons might be sent to the Lord Proprietor. & said that if the Lieuten^t General pleased he might yield the reasons of the Upper House to w^m Berkley & the Government of Virginia but that they should stick to their own reasons or words to that Effect after which the Lieuten^t General adjourned the Assembly to the first Tuesday in Septem^r 1664.
