

The House Adjourned till one of the Clock.

At one of the Clock in the Afternoon the House met again.
Then was read the Petition of Marmaduke Snowe which was followeth

To the honourable the Upper House of Assembly

The humble Petition of Marmaduke Snowe humbly Sheweth That whereas there are Errors assigned by Tho.
Gerrard Gent^r against your Petitioner to be heard before your Honours in this honourable Assembly

And forasmuch as your Petitioner being lame & sickly & the Ordinary at this present so full of People that accommodations are wanting to your Petitioners Condition in reference to a continuance

He therefore humbly prays your Honours to cause these Errors to be heard this day otherwise your Honours would be pleased to appoint a day for hearing the same at your Honourable Discretion whereby your Petitioner may then attend upon this honourable Assembly for that End

And he shall pray &c.

And upon the said Petition ordered that on Tuesday next his Business be heard & in the mean time that Mr Gerrard his Attorney have timely notice given him to appear

Ordered that a member of this House go to the Lower House to tell them that to morrow morning this House will accept of the Conference from the Indians, & that then they may come to declare their Objections against them according to the Order aforementioned & that Mr Matthews the Interpreter have notice then to attend.

And Notice was given accordingly

Then came Mr Thomas Nolley & Mr Jn^r. Morcraft the Attorneys of Thomas Gerrard & presented this following Petition

To the honourable Charles Calvert Esq^r Lieutenant General & Govern^r & the Rest of the Council

The humble Petition of Thomas Gerrard

Sheweth — That whereas your Petitioner acknowledged a Recognizance before the Lord Proprietary of this Province of one thousand pounds sterling with a defazance thereupon to Abel Snowe who assigned thesame to Judith Snowe who assigned to Marmaduke Snowe who sued out a scire facias thereupon & at a Provincial Court the sixth day of October 1664 had order to have Execution thereupon for 1000 sterl. whereupon the sd Marmaduke Snowe sued out Execution by way of Levari facias to levy by way of Execution the said Sum of £1000 sterl.
which was accordingly Executed upon your Petitioners Goods & Chattels to the value of 299: 11: 3 obd the sd Marmaduke making further Complaint to the Court that the Sheriff had levied but 299: 11: 3 obd & not finding any more personal Estate to perfect that Execution, the