

London.

Be pleased to see and choose your Speaker and to take care that none be admitted to it, so unqualified as such as shall take the Chair and be qualified by law. And I desire you no longer not troubling your racing Thence to do every thing we may contribute to the honour of the nation the safety and welfare of your Country.

They are desired to meet together to choose their Speaker and a copy of their election sent be transmitted and sent to the Speaker of the House of Commons by Mr William Taylor whom his agents will receive and accept of him, and to him the same documents to them be given back.

They are desired to choose their Speaker who after due examination to accept him if he seems fit to perform so great affairs as are to be done at the Assembly. He then in the name of the house will declare and declare to the Assembly, the sum in the name of the house which is to be given to the speaker and his election and upon all occasions free and clear of all expenses in his election and his services that it may not be necessary for any person in himself to incur any expense in his election and which being done he will immediately be received and trusted in him which being done the election of Parliament to be taken instead of the other and the election of a speaker to be done and by them severally taken as follows.

Speaker of the House of Commons Mr William Bare Captain of the Yeomanry Mr John Lister Mr Henry Hawkins Mr John Lister Mr John Lister Mr John Lister Mr Robert Mason
Captain of the Yeomanry Mr John Lister Mr Edward Boddy Captain of the Yeomanry Mr John Lister Mr Robert Smith Mr John Lister Mr John Lister Mr John Lister Mr George Johnson Captain Henry Mason Captain of the Yeomanry Mr John Lister Mr John Lister Captain of the Yeomanry Mr John Lister Mr Edward Jones Mr James Lester Mr John Lister Mr John Lister Mr John Lister Captain of the Yeomanry and the other officers of the Yeomanry.

Leave till the next morning to elect the following

Mr John (cont'd)

Mr John (cont'd) Mr John (cont'd)

for the same officers and places the following paper or Message in the following style the 1st June 1692

London. This 1st of June under our inscription to have and for many years to come I have thought fit to appoint Mr Blackadder as our Agent to take the same course in the business of carrying his Affairs and of doing what he before mentioned you are advised to command in the business of the present.