

The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, in their report to the United States Congress, have stated that the public lands in that District have been increasing in number and value, and that it is necessary to provide for their proper management and disposal. The Board has recommended that the Secretary of the Interior be authorized to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the public lands in the District of Columbia, subject to the approval of the Board.

The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, in their report to the United States Congress, have stated that the public lands in that District have been increasing in number and value, and that it is necessary to provide for their proper management and disposal. The Board has recommended that the Secretary of the Interior be authorized to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the public lands in the District of Columbia, subject to the approval of the Board.

The Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia, in their report to the United States Congress, have stated that the public lands in that District have been increasing in number and value, and that it is necessary to provide for their proper management and disposal. The Board has recommended that the Secretary of the Interior be authorized to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the public lands in the District of Columbia, subject to the approval of the Board.

1890. F. RIDGELY, Jun. clk. for the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia.