By the Senate, March 9th, 1826.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate have returned the resolution which originated in your honorable body, declaring that no senator, delegate of the assembly, or member of the council, after having qualified as such, is in the opinion of this general assembly, eligible as governor, until after the expiration of the term for which he was elected as senator, delegate, or member of the council, without having expressed on their part any opinion on the proposition
