

The committee on pensions and revolutionary claims to whom was referred, the resolutions in favour of Elizabeth Heaton, of Berks county, Pennsylvania, Ann Hollydyoak, of the city of Annapolis, Mary Moore, of Dorchester county, Walter Pritit, of Worcester county, Sarah Smith, of the city of Baltimore, and Sarah M<sup>c</sup>Kinsey, of Alleghany county, have had the same under consideration, and ask leave respectfully to report,

That they are of opinion, that said resolutions ought to be adopted.

By order,

Isaac Hines, Com. Clerk.

Mr. Harrison made an unfavourable report upon the resolution for appropriating to the Church Hill Academy, one fourth part of the donation granted to the Centerville Academy, in Queen Ann's county, which resolution was read the third time, and after much discussion the question was put "will the senate assent to the same." The yeas and nays being required appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Dennis, Whiteley.—2.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Lloyd, Prest.	Forrest,	Heath,
Harrison,	Johnson,	Kennedy,
Marriott,	Nelson,	Rees,
Sewell.—10.

Determined in the negative.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following message.

By the House of Delegates, March 9th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message dissenting from the resolution extending to Robert Stewart, collector of Somerset county, further time to complete his collections, and in conformity with the suggestion therein contained, beg leave to communicate the accompanying resolution.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, Clerk.

The said resolution was then read a first, second and third time, by special order and assented to.

The senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.
