

Also, a bill entitled, an act to remunerate Robert Boone of Anne Arundel county, for the loss of a certain negro slave therein mentioned, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Heath, Lloyd and Nelson.

Also, a bill entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the opening of Monument street, in the city of Baltimore, which was read the first time and referred to Messrs. Heath, Rees and Kennedy.

Also, a bill entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the opening of Ensor street, in the city of Baltimore, which was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Heath, Herbert and Thomas.

And returned the bill to provide for the condemning and opening of an alley in the city of Baltimore, as a public high-way, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendment;" amendment proposed, viz: add as the 6th section of the bill, "and be it enacted, that this act shall have no force or validity until approved of by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore." Which amendment was read and assented to.

The senate adjourned until Monday morning 10 o'clock

Monday, 21th January, 1828.

The Senate met. Present the same members as on Saturday, except Mr. Dennis.

The proceedings of Saturday were read.

The supplement to the act to incorporate a Society for the maintainance and education of Poor Female Children by the name of the Benevolent Society of the city and county of Baltimore, passed at November session, one thousand and seven hundred and ninety nine, chapter forty four, was read a third time, passed and sent to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Nelson asked and obtained leave to bring in a bill to be entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act to change the name of the Bank of Westminster, and office of Pay and Receipt to the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Frederick county, and to locate said Bank at Frederick city, with a branch at Westminster. Ordered, that Messrs. Nelson, Kennedy and Rees be a committee to prepare and report the same.

Mr. Heath presented the petition of William Patterson and others of the city of Baltimore, praying the passage of