a law to incorporate a company by the name of the Nep-tune Insurance Company, which was read the first time, and referred to Messrs. Heath, Lloyd and Nelson.

Mr. Whiteley from the committee to whom was referred the bill, entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act for building a bridge on the north west fork of the Nanticoke river, in Caroline county, at or near a place called and known by the name of the "old Bloomery," and for other purposes therein named, passed at December session, 1826, reported, that the committee had had the same under consideration, and were of opinion that it ought to pass with the following amendment, viz: after the word "them" in the 3d line of the first section, add "if the Levy court of Caroline county, or a majority of said court, shall think it a desirable;" which amendment was read and assented to. The bill was then read a second and by special order a third time, passed with the proposed amendment and returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Kennedy offered the following message, which was read, assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

By the Senate, January 21th, 1828
Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We have received your message proposing to go into an election of Bank Directors on Wednesday the 20th inst. and concur therein.

By order,

William Kilty, Clerk.

Mr. Harrison from the committee made a favorable report upon the bill for the further relief of Edward Alexander of Cecil county; the said bill was then read a second and by special order a third time, passed and returned to the house of delegates.

Mr. Heath offered the following message, which was read assented to, and sent to the house of delegates.

By the Senate, January 21, 1828,
Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

The senate have received your message in relation to the application of Samuel Miller of Cecil coun y, and regret they cannot concur in the views expressed by your honorable body. The remedy in Chancery which the petitioner undoubtedly possesses, is one in the opinion of the senate by
