

ses, May term 1827, and the cases are now depending in the eastern shore court of appeals.

Charles Jones and securities,

7,123 94

Proceedings in this case were suspended by the legislature till the 1st of the present month. The agent will take immediate steps to have the debt collected.

Thomas Roberts,

1,533-

Mr. Roberts may be entitled to some allowances for insolvent, &c. The agent has not been able to effect a settlement with him, although he has been to Queen-Ann's county for the purpose. Unless the amount due is paid into the treasury, suits will be brought on his bonds to the next court.

Robert Stewart;

1,366 26

The remarks in Mr. Charles Jones's case apply to this.

James Powell,

136 83

Mr. Powell is disposed to pay, the agent has reason to believe, and doubts not this debt will soon be paid into the treasury.

Samuel Morns,

30

Suit now pending in Cecil county court on his bond.

William B. Tillotson,

57 74

This is a balance due from Tillotson former collector of Caroline county. Suit is now pending on his bond,

Marcey Fountain,

9 6

This sum is due from Mr. Fountain, late collector of Caroline county. The agent has taken the steps necessary to obtain judgment against him and securities at the next March court

Robert C. Lusby,

1,188 57

This debt is due from Mr. Lusby late sheriff of Cecil county, unless it is paid into the treasury. The accounts settled by the agent will be returned by treasurer to bring suits to the next court.

Thomas H. Hicks,

888 67

This debt has not been long due. If payment is not promptly made suit will be commenced.