Which amendments were read, and on motion of Mr. Heath ordered to lie on the table.

On motion of Mr. Nelson the senate proceeded to give a second reading to the bill entitled a further supplement, to the act for amending and reducing into system the laws and regulations concerning last wills and testaments, the duties of executors, administrators and guardians, the rights of orphans and other representatives of deceased persons. The said bill was then read a second time, and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading. And having been engrossed, was read a third time, by special order, passed and sent to the house of delegates.

On motion of Mr. Nelson, the senate resumed the consideration of the bill to incorporate the Elkton and Susquehannah Bridge Turnpike Company, with the amendment yesterday proposed to the same by Mr. Lloyd, to wit: strike out the words "any corporate body of" in the 1st line of the 9th section, the question before the senate being on the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. Lloyd asked and obtained leave to withdraw his amendment.

Mr. Heath then moved to amend the section by inserting after the word Maryland, in the 2d line the words, "other than Banking institutions" which amendments were read and assented to.

Mr. Heath moved further to amend the said section by inserting between the words "and" and "the" in the 2d line, the word "that," which amendment was assented to.

The bill having been read throughout as amended, was passed, and returned to the house of delegates.
