

The message was then read, and the question put,
"Will the Senate adopt the message?"

The yeas and nays were asked for, and on taking them they appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Chapman, (Prest.)

Emory,

Hughlett,

Mayer,

Morris,

Osborn,

Pigman,

Sappington,

Wilson,

Wootton,—10.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Claude,

Groome,—2.

So it was determined in the affirmative.

The bill entitled a further additional supplement to an act entitled, an act to regulate the inspection of Tobacco, was read the second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

On motion of Mr. Emory,

The message submitted by him on yesterday, relative to two laws passed at the present session of the Legislature, was taken up for consideration, read and adopted.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning 10 o'clock.

THURSDAY, March 3, 1836.

The Senate met. Present the same Senators as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

Mr. Pigman submitted the following report,

Which was read, and

On motion of Mr. Mayer,

Three hundred copies were ordered to be printed for the use of the General Assembly.

The committee to whom was referred, by a joint committee on the library, under the sanction of the Legislature, the autographical manuscript of the History of Maryland, by John Leeds Bozman, presented to the State for acceptance by his surviving nephew, John Leeds Kerr, Esq. have carefully examined the same, during the last summer, and now respectfully report, that a perusal of the work has convinced them of the rare merits and quali-
