

whilst the corporators are permitted to receive the inordinate interest of fifteen per centum per annum.

In yielding to your appeal, we should entirely abandon the visitorial and inspection rights, with the protective provisions of other charters, and leave to the corporation the privilege of banking, with the powers and immunities of another valuable institution, without limitation or restriction; we therefore adhere to our proposition, as we cannot relinquish provisions so absolutely conservative and salutary.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, Clk.

Also the following resolutions:

A resolution relative to bridges in Charles county,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on finance.

A resolution in favor of Sega Taylor,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on revolutionary claims.

A resolution in favor of Joseph Harris,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on finance.

And returned the bill which originated in the Senate, entitled, an act to incorporate the Boston and New York Coal Company, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendments,"

Which were read and assented to, except the 2nd amendment, and were as follows:

1st section, 7th line, strike out the word "perpetual."

Same section, 23d line, after the word "land," insert the following, "contiguous and near each other."

Add the following as additional sections:

And be it enacted, that any company hereafter formed, shall have the privilege of passing over the lands of said company, so as to connect any lateral rail road with the rail road or roads of said company, by paying to said company such sum or sums as may be agreed upon by three disinterested persons, appointed by the commissioners of Allegany county, to value said damages.

And be it enacted, that this act, or no part thereof, shall be so construed as to give to said company any banking privileges."

And be it enacted, that all such parts of this act as relate to the establishment, working or carrying on of mills, mines or manufactories may be modified or repealed by the