

Act of 1831, chapter 303, they have contracted with William McNeir to execute the printing that may be required by the Senate; and with Jeremiah Hughes for the printing of the Laws, and such work as may be required by the house of delegates for the ensuing year.

The whole to be executed on the same terms for which the Printing of the present and several preceding Sessions have been executed, viz:

For Bills, 111 copies, per page,	$1.00
For Broadsides, 111 copies, - -	8.00
For Journals, 1600 copies, per page - -	2.00
For the Laws, 1600 copies, ditto - -	2.50

The work and paper not to be inferior to that of the present Session.

And they have contracted with the Printers respectively, for making Indexes to the Journals of the house of delegates and Senate, for the following sums:

For Index to the Laws - - -	$100 00
“ Index to the Journal House - - -	150 00
“ Index Journal Senate - - -	100 00

Mr. Claude submitted the following message:

By the Senate,

April 4, 1836.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message, proposing to invite the Governor to sign the engrossed Bills, this morning, prior to the adjournment of the Legislature, and concur therein. We have named Messrs. Claude and Groome to join the gentlemen appointed by you.

By order,

Jos. H. Nicholson, Clk.

Which was read and adopted:

The Clerk of the house of delegates, delivered the following resolutions:

A resolution in favor of William Kirby,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on finance.

A resolution authorizing the publishing certain laws,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on finance.

Also, a bill entitled, an act for the payment of the journal of accounts,

Which was read the first time and referred to the committee on finance.