The Oath of Captain John Tucker in open Assembly & February 1647

This Deponent saith that he Questioning Mr Cabert how the great Charge incurred should be paid the said Mr Cabert replied that the charge should be paid out of his own estate and his Lordships estate and if that were not sufficient he would engage the Province over with the sale of his Lordships Patent

Walter Tates deposes in open Assembly that one Elias Beech declaring to Mr Leonard Cabert in presence of this deponent that he would depart the Province for fear of great charges for Payment of Soldiers wages like to light upon the Country to whom Mr Cabert replied that his own Estate and his Brothers should pay the Soldiers and that no other Charge should come upon the Country more then the Co Tobacco a head and further added saying if that will will not do I will engage his Lordships Country for the satisfying of the said Soldiers.

Lieutenant William Lewis deposes in Open Assembly that he hath heard Mr Leonard Cabert say words to the Effect whereas he found it necessary to maintain such a charge in defence of the Province if his Lordships estate in the Prov^t could not defray the charge his own should and if that would not he would engage his Lordships Province William Whitta deposes in open Assembly that he hath heard Mr Cabert say that his Lordships Estate and his own estate should go towards the payment of the Soldiers & if that were not sufficient he would engage the Province

And in particular he the said Mr Cabert agreed with the Soldier
