 ordered to be taken into consideration by this house be sent to the lower house and that they be desired with the house to know which of them they have already taken into consideration and that they will send the copy of the house all the bills that they have read that may take them into consideration.

The house adjourned for an hour.

And the house met again.

Then came from the lower house Mr. Robert Esq.
 Thomas Esq. and brought this paper from the Thomas Cornwallis Esq.

To the House the Lieutenant General Chamberlain with the rest of the Council assembled in the upper house of parliament to the Gent. of the Assembly for the Province of Maryland.

The humble petⁿ and complaint of Tho. Cornwallis Esq. one of the first Chief Adventurers for the planting and inhabiting the Province of Maryland.

Sheweth

That whereas the Count as it is with known at his great Cost and Charge from the first planting of this Province for the space of twenty eight years been one of the greatest Propagators of human society by the means of transportation of persons whose of diverse have been every good Rank and Quality, towards whom and the rest he hath been ever so careful to discharge a good conscience in the true performance of his promises and obligations that he was never taxed with any burden though it is also well known to his country as that the Charge of so great a family as was maintained was never defrayed.
