

Then came the lower house & the laws being read the Lieutenant Generall gave his consent to them in these words The Lord prop^d willeth that these be laws after which the Lieutenant Generall ordered the Reasons drawn up by the house to be delivered to the Speaker to be considered on. After w^{ch} the Speaker returned into the Upper House & desired their reasons might be sent to the Lord Prop^d and sayd that if the Lieutenant Generall pleased he might send the reasons of the Upper house to S^r W^m Berkeley and the Govern^t of Virginia but that they should stick to their own reasons or words to that effect

After which the Lieutenant Generall adjourned the Assembly till the first Tuesday in September 1664.

September 5th 1664
