

April 1698.

As for the Mistake you think to be in Mr. Plater acc^t for potomack, Care will be taken to examine him about it.

A^d Dr. from your House supposed to be for my Lord Bps of London has been here reads, and his Ex^{ty} says that he seems to have his Reputation and Honour supported and vindicated by some of you but shall rather look upon it as a scandall to have it so, for that he can prove one of your House to be a Villain upon Records if not worse, and several others your lives and conversations to be so well knowne both in this Country and England, that they are not agreeable to truth and Justice.

Signed P. Order.

Wm. Drutten, M^r. Counciller.

The House adjourned till Monday Morning to the Speakers Chamber att 7 of the Clock.

Monday April the 4th 1698.

The House mett. and Called over, absent Mr. Byrman.

Then read over what was done on Saturday last.

Message by Col. Henry Fowler and Thomas Tench Esq^r. Commanding the House to attend upon his Ex^{ty} att the Councill Chamber att 9. Thomas Laurence immediately.

One other Message by the said Col. Fowler and Esq. Tench to know why the House do not come down.

Mr. Philip Clarke, Mr. Crauford, Capt. Hill and Mr. Hutchison appointed to draw up an answer to the last Message on Saturday last.

The House go up to waite upon his Ex^{ty} the Gov^r att the Councill Chamber where his Ex^{ty} was pleased on his Maj^{ty} behalfe to assent to all the Bills proposed except the Reviving Bill and for apportioning the publick Levie.

And then prorogued the House untill the 3^d day of May ensuing.

W. Bladen. C^lrk. H^ous. D^{ist}.