

by your Address just now presented to him, that no Business lays before you, requires the immediate Attendance of Mr. Speaker and the whole House in the Upper House: And Mr. Jennings further said, that to prevent Mistakes they were Ordered to deliver Mr. Speaker a Paper containing the Words aforesaid, which was delivered accordingly: And thereupon Mr. Speaker, and the whole House, go to the Upper House, and afterwards return to the Lower House, where Mr. Speaker resumed the Chair, and Reported to this House, that his Excellency the Governor in his Speech (of which he did not deliver Mr. Speaker a Copy) was pleased, with the Advice of his Lordship's Council of State, to Prorogue this present General Assembly 'till the First Tuesday in September next, and thereupon this House is accordingly Prorogued to that Time.

THE foregoing Votes and Proceedings, &c. would have been Published a considerable Time since, had not Sickness, with which myself (and Family) have lately been afflicted, prevented it; which is the only Reason that has kept them so long from the Publick.
