

young Lad named John Callahan, who writes in said Office, and who made such Alteration, that a certain James Rounds, a Deputy Surveyor of Worcester County, some Time in the Month of October last, came to the Office and got him to show him the Record of said Land; that the said James Rounds, after looking at such Record, told him the said Callahan, that there was a Mistake in the First Court of the Land, and desired he, the said Callahan, would alter it so as to make it agree with what the said Rounds called his Field-Book, which the said Callahan says he at first refused, thinking it wrong, but by turning to the original Certificate in the Office, and finding the First Court upon the Plat agreeing with the Alteration proposed by the said Rounds, he was induced to believe there might be a Mistake, and did, after much Solicitation and Persuasion of him the said Rounds, alter said Record; for doing which, the said Rounds gave him Five Dollars.
