The following message being prepared, was sent to the senate by Mr. Bayly and Mr. Norris:

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, JUNE 15, 1782.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOURS,

THE necessary business of the session being nearly completed, this house are determined to put an end to this session this evening, and have agreed to adjourn to the last Monday in September next.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

The intendant of the revenue having acquainted the general assembly by letter, that the state of his health is such, as to render it necessary for him to leave Annapolis for a time,

RESOLVED, That this assembly will dispense with the attendance of the intendant at Annapolis, from the 20th of July to the 5th of September next.

Sent to the senate by Mr. Stone and Mr. Jenifer.

On considering the resolve of congress of the 20th of February last, and the letter from the superintendent of the finances of the United States of the 7th of May last, informing that he had nominated Mr. Daniel Defaussure commissioner to settle the accounts between this state and the United States, and to liquidate certificates and other claims by citizens of this state against the United States, agreeable to the resolve of congress, and requesting the approbation of the legislature of the said commissioner for the purpose aforesaid,

RESOLVED, That the general assembly approve of the appointment of the said Mr. Defaussure, and do direct the intendant of the revenue and the auditor-general, treasurers, and all other officers of this government, to furnish the said commissioner with accounts, vouchers, and all things necessary, to enable him to state and adjust the account of this state with the United States.

The question was put, That the foregoing resolve be referred to the next session of assembly? The yeas and nays being called for by Mr. Jenifer appeared as follow:
