M O N D A Y, — February 6, 1786.

THE house met. Present the same members as on Saturday. The proceedings of Saturday were read.

Mr. Bracco, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker a bill, entitled, An act allowing a longer time to compound on old certificates of survey; which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Quynn, from the committee, brings in and delivers to Mr. Speaker the following report:

By the COMMITTEE to whom was referred the petition of William Adams.

YOUR committee beg leave to report, That they have taken the same into their consideration, and find the facts therein stated are true. They are of opinion, that the auditor-general appoint two disinterested persons, of credit and judgment, to estimate, on oath, the damages done to the said house, and the rent or compensation that ought to be paid for the use thereof, and when ascertained, that he pass the same, and that the treasurer grant the petitioner a certificate for the amount thereof, and that the same be charged to the United States. All which is submitted to the honourable house.

By order,

W. PINKNEY, clk.

Which was read.
