The resolution respecting surplus interest, of the 5th instant, endorsed; "By the senate, December 6, 1792: Read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

"By order, H. RIDGELY, clk.

"By the senate, December 11, 1792: Read the second time and dissented to.

"By order, H. RIDGELY, clk."

The following message:

BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 12, 1792.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have dissented from your resolution of the fifth instant, respecting surplus interest, because it violates the appropriation of the three per cent. stock, and subjects the state to the payment of interest from the first of January, 1791. We should have no objection to a resolution empowering the trustee for the state to transfer the amount of the surplus interest to the several persons entitled to it, in three per cent. stock, after the existing appropriations are satisfied.

By order,

H. RIDGELY, clk.

Which was read.
