So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put, That the whole of the said resolution from the word "Resolved," be stricken out for the purpose of inserting the following words? to wit: "That Thursday, the 8th instant, be appointed to choose, by joint ballot of both houses, one senator, to represent this state in the senate of the United States, to be a resident of the western shore; and that the person on the said shore having a majority of votes of all the attending members of both houses, be declared duly elected to represent this state in the senate of the United States until the fourth day of March, 1815; and that a commission issue to the said senator, appointed as aforesaid, signed by the governor for the time being, or in his absence by the presiding member of the council, in the following words, to wit: "The Legislature of Maryland, reposing especial confidence and trust in your integrity and abilities, hath appointed you a senator to represent this state in the senate of the United States till the fourth day of March, 1815. Given under my hand, and seal of this state, Anno Domini —." The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follow:

So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The Speaker laid before the house a letter from Edward Lloyd, Esquire, the Governor elect, accepting of the appointment; which was read and referred to the consideration of the senate.

The house adjourns until to-morrow morning 9 o'clock.

T H U R S D A Y, June 8, 1809.

THE house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill to prescribe the time which jurors shall serve in Baltimore county, the bill confirming the sale made by commissioners of the real estate of Charles Bishop, of Worcester county, the resolution relative to the appointment of a senator, and the letter from the governor elect, were sent to the senate by the clerk.

Mr. Beall, from the committee, delivers to the speaker a bill, entitled, An act for the benefit of Edward Eversfield, of Prince-George's county; which was read the first and second time by especial order, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.

The clerk of the senate delivers the bill to lay out a road therein mentioned, endorsed, "will pass." Ordered to be engrossed. The bill for the relief of David C. Stewart, Lloyd Buchanan and William P. Stewart, of Baltimore county, insolvent debtors, endorsed, "will pass with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were agreed to and the bill ordered to be engrossed. And the resolution relative to printing the militia law, endorsed, "dissented from."

A petition from John Groome, and others, praying for a turnpike road from French-town, in Cæcil county, to the state line, on the route to New-Castle, in the state of Delaware, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Veazey, Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Porter, to consider and report thereon.
