The said substitute was then assented to.

On motion by Mr. Merrick, the vote of the house was reconsidered, upon the bill from the senate, entitled, An act to confirm an act, entitled, An act to regulate the removal of proceedings in criminal cases, and to make certain changes in the constitution and form of government for that purpose.

The said bill was then read, and again rejected.

On motion by Mr. Hood, the amendments proposed by the senate to the bill, entitled, An act to repeal so much of
