

the bill from the senate, entitled, A further supplement to the act passed at November session one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, entitled, An act to establish a bank and incorporate the subscribers thereto, reported the same without amendment.

The said bill was then read the first time.

When on motion by Mr. Merrick, the first section of the bill was amended, by inserting in the second line thereof, after the word "Baltimore," the words, "and of the Hagers town bank respectively."

The said bill was then read the second time, and passed with the proposed amendment, and returned to the senate.

The bill, entitled, An act for the relief of Garrett Smith, of the city of Baltimore, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate

On motion by Mr. Montgomery, the amendments proposed by the senate to the bill, entitled, An act requiring the commissioners of Harford county, to open the road therein mentioned, was read the second time and dissented from.

Mr. Montgomery submitted the following message;

By the House of Delegates,

February 18th, 1831.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return you the bill, entitled, An act requiring the commissioners of Harford county to open the road therein mentioned. We have disagreed to the amendment proposed by your honourable body, and request that you will reconsider and pass it without the amendment. The bill, if amended as proposed by your honourable body, would be inoperative; the road has been located by commissioners legally appointed, and admitted to be required by the public convenience; injustice would be done if the money necessary for the opening of it should now be withheld.

By order,

G. G. Brewer, Clk.

Which was twice read, assented to, and with the bill therein mentioned, sent to the senate.

Mr. Chapman, from the committee on ways and means, to whose consideration was referred the report and resolution of the select committee appointed on the petition of Standish Barry, of the city of Baltimore, reported the same, accompanied with the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That
