So the bill was rejected, and returned to the senate.

The clerk of the senate returned the resolution in favour of the members and officers of the legislature, endorsed "assented to." Ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Willson from the committee on engrossed bills delivered the following report:

The committee on engrossed bills, beg leave to report— That they have carefully examined and compared the engrossed bills of the house of delegates, from number seventy-five to number one hundred and forty-two, inclusively, and from number one hundred and sixty, to number one hundred and eighty-two, inclusively, and the engrossed bills of the senate from number one hundred and forty-three, to number one hundred and fifty-nine, inclusively, and from number one hundred and eighty-three to number one hundred and eighty-nine, inclusively, also the engrossed resolutions of the house of delegates from number one to number sixty-one, inclusively, and the resolutions of the senate from number sixty-two to number sixty five, inclusively, with the originals thereof, as heretofore passed by both branches of the legislature, since the commencement of the
