

By the Senate,

January 9th, 1833.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

As a means of abbreviating the session of the Legislature, so far as shall be consistent with our deliberations and the public convenience, we submit to your honorable body the propriety of indicating some day, after which we will not entertain the proposition to originate business. In furtherance of these views we propose, with your concurrence, to originate no business, unless of extraordinary urgency, after the 10th day of February next.

By order,

J. H. Nicholson, Cl'k.

Which was read.

The Speaker laid before the house a report from the Treasurer of the Western Shore, in obedience to an order of the House of Delegates, of the 8th Jan. 1833.

Which was read.

The house then adjourned until to-morrow morning, ten o'clock.

THURSDAY, January 10th, 1833.

The house met; present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill, entitled An act to repeal in part, an act, entitled An act to prohibit the use of Gill Nets, in the Potomac river, and Patuxent river, during the period therein mentioned.

Was sent to the Senate.
