

Mr. Mann presented a petition of Alexander Edmonds of Washington county, praying for a divorce;

Which was read and referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. Maffitt presented a petition of sundry inhabitants of Cecil county, praying the passage of a law to erect a bridge over the little North East creek, near McCauley's Mill;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Maffitt, Knight and Evans.

Mr. Mann presented a petition of James Hook, praying the passage of a law to authorise him to bring into this state certain slaves therein mentioned;

Which was read and referred to the committee on the coloured population.

Mr. Unkefer presented a petition of sundry citizens of Frederick county, praying for a supplement to an act, entitled, An act to alter and repeal all such parts of the constitution and form of government, as relates to the division of Frederick county, into election districts, passed at December session, 1831, chapter 112;

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Unkefer, Palmer and Sifford.

The Speaker laid before the House a report from the Treasurer of the western shore, in obedience to an order of the House of Delegates of the 2d January inst.

Which was read and ordered to lie on the table;

Also, reports from the clerks of Caroline and Baltimore counties, relative to the attendance of the Judges of their respective courts;

Which were severally read and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

Also, reports from the Register of the Land office for the western shore, and the clerks of Baltimore and Caroline counties, shewing the amount of monies paid by them into the Treasury.

Also, an inventory of the furniture remaining in the government house on the first of January, 1834;

Which were severally read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. Crabb presented petitions from James Frazier and Noble Butler, of the city of Annapolis, severally praying for pensions;

Which were read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

Mr. Jones of Baltimore city, presented a petition from