

Frederick county, widow of Roger Nelson, a Revolutionary Officer, praying to be placed on the pension list,

Which was read and referred to the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims.

On motion of Mr. Gantt,

Ordered, That the committee on indigent persons by county assessment, be instructed to enquire into the propriety of placing William Crown, of Prince George's county, on the pension list of said county.

Mr. Sellman, submitted the following order:

Which was read and ordered to lie on the table.

Ordered, That so much of the Governor's Message, as relates to the printing and supervision of the printing of the report on the Digest of the Laws, by John Buchanan, and Reverdy Johnson, esquires, be referred to a select committee of three, and that they have leave to report by bill or otherwise.

The Speaker, laid before the house a report from the clerk of Allegany county, relative to the attendance of the judges,

Which was read and referred to the committee on grievances and courts of justice.

Also, a report from said clerk of the money paid by him into the treasury.

Also, a report from said clerk, giving an abstract of the levy of said county, for the year 1833:

Which were severally read and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Mr. Ridgely, presented a report from the trustees of Allegany county Academy,

Which was read and referred to the committee on Education.

Mr. Day reported a bill, entitled, an Act to authorise Samuel Philips to bring into this state, from the District of Columbia, certain slaves therein named;

Which was read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

The bill reported by Mr. Palmer, entitled, an Act to authorise the Levy Court of Frederick county to allow an additional compensation to James Taylor for building a bridge over the Monocacy river, was taken up for consideration, read the second time, passed, and sent to the Senate.

The bill to incorporate The People's Gas Light Company of Baltimore was taken up for consideration,

When, on motion of Mr. Jones of Baltimore city, the