

David J. Riley, Baltimore	do	Sept.	9, 1830
Edward McBride, Washington	do	March	7, 1831
Susanna M. Wiley, Cecil	do	Nov.	1, 1831
Alexander McIlhenny Balt. City	do	March	4, 1832

Samuel Adams having on the 29th October last been in the institution five years, the full time allowed by the law for any pupil to remain, we presume has been discharged, and that the number now there is eleven.

The foregoing will afford all the information requested by the resolution, but it may be useful to add other facts in relation to the subject, and we therefore state that the following deaf and dumb persons, who were selected and sent to the institution in Philadelphia, and who are not there now, having voluntarily left, or been taken away by their parents or friends, viz.

William Worthington, Balt. City,	admitted	Sept. 27, 1828
	left	March 28, 1833
Susanna M. Taneyhill Calvert,	admitted	June 24, 1829
	left	July 23, 1833

Sarah Connelly } Anna M. Price, } Robert Lambdin, Talbot " } Willey Anne Davis, } Priscilla Davis, }	Caroline co'ty admitted	Aug. 4, 1833
		June 6, 1833
	Anne Arundel	Aug. 27, 1829
		left July 23, 1833

And the following were selected, but from the accounts received from the institution, it appears that neither had been sent up to the 1st October last, the date of the last account which has been presented, viz:

William Philips of Baltimore co.	selected	June 15, 1829
Sarah Creager of Frederick		Aug. 5, 1829
William Fox of Baltimore city		1830

By letter from John Schley, Esq. Clerk of Frederick county, in which he returned the certificate sent for Miss Creager, it appears that she died about the time or very shortly after she was selected. Why the others have not been sent to the institution the committee have no information.

All of which is respectfully submitted,
WALTER M. MILLAR, Chair'n.

Robert B. A. Tate, Clerk.

Which was read the first and second time by special order and concurred in.

Mr. Dulany, chairman of the committee on insolvency, to which was referred the bill from the senate, entitled, an act for the benefit of Andrew Hook, of the city of Baltimore; made a favorable report thereon;