Which was read the first and second time by special order, and concurred in.

Mr. Lantz, by leave of the house, submitted the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor and Council cause to be paid to John Sullivan, or order, $42, by and in virtue of a resolution of Dec. session, 1832, No. 30, authorising the repair of the front of the state house, &c. The amount claimed now by J. Sullivan being for services rendered, and labour absolutely done and performed by said Sullivan, at and about the repairs of the state house, under the direction of a certain Jeremiah L. Boyd, who was employed by the Governor and Council to superintend the said repairs, also

Resolved, That the Governor and Council in virtue of aforesaid resolution, of December session, 1832, pay to James Iglehart or order $39.52, the amount of his account for materials furnished for repairs to the roof of the state house, &c.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, and the question put, will the house assent to the resolution:

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Lantz, by leave of the house, submitted the following preamble and resolution.

Whereas, at December session, 1828, a resolution was passed authorising the Governor and Council to contract for the making of two copies of the plot of the public lands, westward of Fort Cumberland, and for other purposes; and whereas, in pursuance of said resolution, the said copies of the plot of said lands, has been made out, and the one intended for Allegany county in said resolution is now in the Land office of the western shore, and it is important the same should be forwarded to the clerks office, of Allegany county—Therefore

Resolved, That the Governor and Council is hereby authorised and required to cause to be conveyed and delivered the aforesaid plot of the public lands westward of Fort Cumberland, so soon as practicable to the clerk of Allegany county, as was designed by the original resolution.

Which was read the first and second time by special order, assented to, and sent to the senate.

On motion by Mr. Pratt, the house took up for consideration the resolution authorising the clerk of the court of Appeals and Register in Chancery, to purchase and cause to be put up stoves in their respective offices.
