So it was determined in the negative.

The said resolutions having been read the second time;

Mr. Crabb called for the previous question.

On motion by Mr. Jones of Balt. city,

The Sergeant at arms was sent after the absent members, viz. Messrs. Hyland, Griffith and Scott.

The Seargeant at arms having returned and reported that in obedience to the order of the house, he had notified the absent members, Messrs. Hyland and Griffith, that their attendance in the house was required, and that they were now attending, but the other absent member, Mr. Scott, he could not find.

The previous question called for by Mr. Crabb, being demanded by a majority of the members present, the said previous question was put, viz.

'Shall the main question be now put,'

And it was resolved in the affirmative.

The question was then put,

'Will the house assent to the resolutions;

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Merrick,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows.
