

The question was then put, "shall the bill pass;"
Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Griffith,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Heard	Day.
Miller, of Kent	Scott
Hurt	Gantt
Linthicum	Roberts
F. Smith	Larrimore
Wailes	Burgess
Lavielle	Fassitt
M. F. Smith	Dale
Merrick	Purnell
Hawkins	Johns
Millar of C.	Sutton
Price	Moore
Hillen	Nelson
Ely	Charles
Carroll	Carter of Caroline
Bruff	Fountain
Horney	Jones of Balt.
Dudley	Peregoy
Spencer	Mann
Jones, of Somerset	Wharton
Long	Grove
Hyland	Humrickhouse
Griffith	Willson
Nicols	Bruce
Evans	Ridgely
Maffitt	Lantz—53
Knight

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Wright, Speaker	Brewer
Blakistone	Schley
Gale	Unkefer
Hayne	Palmer
Snowden	Sifford
Handy	Burchenal
MacNamara	White
Wright, of Dorchester	Gaither—17
Pratt

So the bill was passed.

The house then proceeded to the consideration of the third order of the day, being the unfavorable report of the